

Jumping and Playing Catch for a Good Cause

10.08.2013

Camden Raizola of Vermillion, S.D., takes his turn on the trampoline and at the same time plays catch with a football at the 4th annual jump-a-thon being conducted through Thursday, October 10, by Southwestern Oklahoma State University's Tau Kappa Epsilon social fraternity. Members of TKE are jumping on the trampoline for 80 hours straight to raise money for St. Jude Children's Hospital. TKEs will accept donations at the site of the jump-a-thon, being held at the Clock Tower on the Weatherford campus.
